

Resources: Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada and Laws relating to the Treatment of First Nations in Canada

The following resources may assist school trustees (and others) who are seeking information regarding the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada and laws relating to the treatment of First Nations in Canada.

Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada ("TRC")

- Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada Website
- "Honouring the Truth, Reconciling the Future" – Summary of the Final Report of the TRC
- "They Came for the Children"

On-line Courses

- UBC Faculty of Education – "Reconciliation through Indigenous Education"
- Provincial Health Services Authority Indigenous Cultural Competency Training Program

Written & Printable Resources

- First Nations Historical Timeline
- "100 Years of Loss – The Residential School System in Canada"
- Reclaiming History: The Residential School System in Canada
- Timeline: Key dates for Canada's dealings with First Nations

Other Resources

- First Nations Education Steering Committee
- Assembly of First Nations
- Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada